

Gads Hill Center Privacy Policy

Gads Hill Center has created this privacy statement in order to demonstrate our firm commitment to privacy. The following discloses our information gathering and dissemination practices for this website.

Our site's registration form requires users to give us contact information (such as their name and email address). We use donor contact information from the registration form to send the user our electronic newsletter and other information about Gads Hill Center. The donor's contact information is also used to contact the visitor when necessary. Users may opt-out of receiving future mailings; see the choice/opt-out section below.

Gads Hill Center will not give, or sell, your donor email addresses or other contact information.

The Gads Hill Center website accepts donations from donors to support the organization's programs. We collect the donor's contact information (such as their email address). Contact information from the order form is used to send acknowledgements, donation receipt letters, and information about Gads Hill Center to our donors. The donor's contact information is also used to get in touch with them when necessary. Donors may opt out of receiving future mailings or unsubscribe from our e-newsletter at any time. Credit card information that is collected is used to process donations. It is never shared with any outside party.

Security

This site has security measures in place to protect the loss, misuse and alteration of the information under our control. Our shopping cart is run on a secure server. If you directly email us, we suggest that you send two emails and break your credit card number in two. Send half the number in one email and the other half with the expiration date in the other email.
